

About Pamela Dingle

Pamela Dingle has served as the Program Coordinator of the Austell Youth Innovation Center since its inception in 2018. Pamela Dingle has served as a passionate advocate of learning for 37 years. Having taught in classrooms from PreK-12th grade and served as an education leader- Principal & Curriculum Director for 22 years, Pamela Dingle brings a unique skill set to program development and cultivating innovative learning experiences that reach all youth.

As an engaged community leader, Pamela has served on the Cobb Safety & Education Foundation Board, the Cobb Business & Education Chamber Board, the International Academy of Smyrna Governing Board, the South Cobb High School PTA Board, and the Austell Community Collaborative Board. Additionally, Pamela has facilitated both women & youth programming through Mount Paran Church of God and is committed to serving the Mableton-Austell Community to help its residents flourish.

Pamela Dingle is the proud parent of Mia Dingle, a current and future leader within the Mableton-Austell Community and an ongoing champion for equitable access to future opportunities.